

SAISA North Points Gold Regatta

Lake Norman Yacht Club, March 15-16, 2008

Sixty-five high school sailors from the Carolinas, Georgia and Tennessee competed March 15-16, 2008, in the second annual North Points Gold Regatta.

The regatta on Lake Norman in Mooresville, NC, was held to determine the six teams to represent the area in the South Atlantic championship in April.

James Island Charter High School of Charleston took first place with seven bullets in 16 races. Skipper Peter Rupp and crew Jack Cabell won five of their eight races in B Division.

Ashley Hall of Charleston placed second; and third was Lake Norman High School of Mooresville, NC.

Others qualifying for the South Atlantic champs were Academic Magnet of Charleston, Farragut of Knoxville, TN, and Porter Gaud of Charleston.

The teams completed six races on Saturday in winds of 2 to 6 knots. Racing was abandoned for the day shortly before 3 p.m. when thunderstorms moved into the area. Ten more races were completed Sunday in winds of 4 to 10 knots.

Claude Summers of Cary, NC, was PRO. Judges were Skip Hildebrand of Cornelius, NC, Ken Gorni of Charlotte, and Steve Syzmanski of Columbia, SC.

One Club 420 sailboat was provided by North Carolina Community Sailing, and the remaining 12 were provided by host Lake Norman Yacht Club. LNYC Junior Program Director Todd Chambers prepped and maintained the boats.
